

We are hiring Part-time Wall Climbers!

About Us

Explorium is a cutting-edge Science and Sport visitor attraction in Dublin. Spanning 110,000 square feet, our facility offers over 250 engaging activities for families, schools, and visitors of all ages. As Ireland's first centre of its kind, we pride ourselves on delivering a unique and exceptional experience to our guests. This is where you come in.

The Role

We are looking for experienced indoor Wall Climbers to join our team to lead and instruct visitors on our challenging "Conquer your Fears" and "Urban Climbs" attractions. Candidates must have prior indoor wall climbing experience with certification and a keen interest in further training. Responsibilities also include overseeing our virtual reality and augmented reality areas, demonstrating proper equipment use, creating an enjoyable and interactive environment for visitors, and ensuring all safety protocols are followed.

Requirements

- Must be minimum 18 years of age or older
- Physically fit with a head for heights
- Fluent in English
- Excellent communication skills
- Previous indoor climbing experience
- Indoor climbing qualifications
- Confidence leading and instructing groups
- Cleared Garda Vetting Disclosure (we will submit your application to the National Vetting Bureau) or a Foreign Police Certificate to prove you don't have a criminal record.
- Weekend availability

Additional qualifications such as sports coaching, first aid, and working at heights, rescue certifications are highly advantageous.
